

3

4

1 Seldom-seen '37 Pontiac, owned by Marty Windleborn, is powered by a 455/Turbo 350 combination. The rear axle is from a Trans Am.

2 E Scott and Tina Kapton brought their unique, black-on-black '67 GTO. It's got the H.O. engine and a four-speed transmission.

5

3 In the Semi-Modified class, Best of Show was awarded to this restified, 421 Tri-Power 1964 Catalina convertible.

4 The red carpet was rolled out for Pontiac's A-list celebrities, from left: Arnie Beswick, Linda Vaughn and Jim Wangers.

5 Another Best of Show award went to another Catalina convertible—this time, a great, restored '63 model.

6 A colorful array of more than 20 late-model GTOs was on hand.

7 Stunning pro-style 1962 Tempest drew plenty of attention all weekend. It's hard to go wrong with red paint and a narrowed rearend.

6

7